Esquire Assist, Ltd. Reaches Its 20th Anniversary

January 4th marked the 20th anniversary of Esquire Assist, Ltd. The company officially began on 1-4-1988 with the filing of a fictitious name registration. The company incorporated in 1997.

The past 20 years has seen a great deal of change and despite the fact that more and more services are available on-line, clients still prefer to place their trust in us to file and obtain documents, to conduct searches and to provide registered agent services in PA and across the nation (see AAAgent article below). We look forward to many more years of being YOUR TRUSTED BUSINESS FRIEND IN PENNSYLVANIA.

“Hold on, just a little while longer”...

Lien Certificates

As was reported on our FRONT PAGE NEWS see (www.esquireassist.com) Act 119 required the rework of the Corporation Tax procedures utilized by the Dept. of Revenue. This rework necessitated a revamp of the Corporation Tax computer system by 1-1-2008. The new system is taking longer than expected to get up and running (naturally) and until it is completed, the Department will be unable to issue lien certificates. We expect that the revamp will be done soon. Keep an eye on our web site and call with any special problems.

PA BEAUTIFULLY

Ricketts Glen State Park (c)2004

There are different sites of natural beauty in the world but there are none more beautiful (in my humble opinion) than many in Pennsylvania. Ricketts Glen State Park is one of the best of the best in PA with a number of incredible falls along the Falls Trail that follows the water down the mountainside. The above photo (copyrighted by Shutterly Ridiculous) was taken in the fall of 2003. (For more information see: <http://www.dcnr.state.pa.us/stateParks/parks/rickettsghen.aspx>)

UPDATE: ST. BALDRICKS

Thanks to many of you we were able to reach 125% of our $1,000 goal by raising $1,249.00. We can't thank all of you enough. If anyone deserves the help, our children do. Click here <https://www.stbaldricks.org/participants/index.html> and search for Anthony DiSanto for more information.

Again, THANK YOU ALL VERY MUCH.

PA POLITICS

If independent voters could choose which party they wanted to vote for in the primaries, we just might be a purple state since it seems that most people are very dissatisfied with both red and blue... and, it might be suggested, with good cause.

LEGAL WORD(S) OF THE MONTH

Inure or Enure: Which One?

"The second form of the word has some currency in law in the sense 'to take effect, to come into operation', but even in law the form inure is the more usual of the two (the damages must inure to the exclusive benefit of the widow and children - Garner, 1987). In its other senses, esp, in the passive followed by the preposition to, 'to accustom (a person) to something unpleasant', inure is the normal spelling." Fowler's Modern English Usage by R. W. Burchfield (Oxford University Press - 1968, 1996) p. 410.

PA - HISTORY

THE FOLLOWING IS TAKEN FROM:

Pennsylvania, a History of the Commonwealth, Randall M. Miller and William Pencak, Eds. Penn State Univ. Press, p. 364

NATIVE AMERICANS IN PENNSYLVANIA
"Pennsylvania is unusual among eastern states in that it has no Indian reservation land. The last significant piece of Native American territory was the Cornplanter Grant, a small stretch on the west bank of the Allegheny along the New York State border. Names for the Seneca war-chief Cornplanter, the land was granted by the Pennsylvania legislature in 1791 in order to foster Cornplanter's friendship, and in 1794 Cornplanter played a critical role in securing a peace treaty with the United States."

The lands were eventually taken under eminent domain for a dam and the small remaining Seneca population was relocated.

The editors go on to state that "even Johnny Cash protested the scheme in a song that asked, "Cornplanter, can you swim?"
